On the left side, there is a vertical strip of lighter, more uniform material, possibly a hinge or a different part of the binding. The overall appearance is aged and worn.

TORRID WAVE SPREADS

Atlantic Cities Now from the Extreme Heat
Deaths and Prostration Middle West Continues

Weather Bureau Fails to See Any Sign of Relief

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The torrid wave that has been sweeping across the Atlantic cities from the extreme heat of the West, has now reached the middle of the continent. In the first of the week, the official temperature reached a maximum of 94 degrees; Boston with the mercury at 88 and New York at 86 and 90. In most of the cities the heat wave was accompanied by depressing humidity.

A few places in the country were temporarily relieved by showers or cooling lake breezes, but generally throughout the middle West the conditions today were no different from those of the two days preceding. There was small chance of relief, the weather bureau said tonight.

RECORDS AGAIN BROKEN
KANSAS CITY, June 10.—Records again were broken here tonight. The temperature of 100 degrees, the highest mark so far in this section. In Kansas the thermometer at 11, was lower than yesterday, but the heat was still intense.

ST. LOUIS SWEETENED
ST. LOUIS, June 10.—The mark of the summer was here late today when the thermometer registered 94. An hour later a sixteen-mile gale blowing and the mercury fell to 84. The street temperature was 84. Up to tonight the heaviest prostration had been with no deaths.

CHICAGO COOLERS
CHICAGO, June 10.—A breeze brought partial relief here today and sent the thermometer ten degrees down. The street was 88 degrees. The relief came too late, however, to do much for the sufferers, as the breeze was directly or indirectly reported to be reported to the public.

TWO DIE IN DETROIT
DETROIT (Mich.), June 10.—Two persons died from heat today, making a total of three since the heat wave began last Sunday. A case of relief came tonight, but the weather bureau said it was not enough to do much for the sufferers.

ALBUQUERQUE Nephew of the President
ALBUQUERQUE (N. M.), June 10.—The nephew of the President, who died here last night, was buried today. The heat wave was still intense, and the weather bureau said it was not enough to do much for the sufferers.

HOUSTON (Tex.) June 10.—A real estate worth hundreds of dollars, but not a dollar, was lost here today. The heat wave was still intense, and the weather bureau said it was not enough to do much for the sufferers.

DENVER'S "SPOONING" CONTINUES
DENVER, June 10.—The "spooning" continues here. The heat wave was still intense, and the weather bureau said it was not enough to do much for the sufferers.

PHYSICIANS AT CHICAGO Hope that the Torrid Wave Will Recede

CHICAGO, June 10.—Physicians at Chicago hope that the torrid wave will recede. The heat wave was still intense, and the weather bureau said it was not enough to do much for the sufferers.

Forces of Constitutionalists Menace the Railroads.
Rumor of Federal Activity Stirs Gen. Funston.
Gen. Natera and His Army Assault Zacatecas.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Railroad communication between Mexico City and Vera Cruz is menaced by Constitutional forces, Brig-Gen. Funston reported today to the War Department.

From sources in touch with the Constitutional agency here it was learned the object of the activity of Carranza's troops in Vera Cruz State is to cut off, if possible, all means of

The first three divisions of the Atlantic fleet left Vera Cruz for open sea practice to remain until Friday.

CARRANZA'S NOTE IS TRANSMITTED.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SALTILLO (Mex.) June 10.—It was generally understood here tonight that Gen. Carranza already has transmitted to the mediators at Niagara Falls his answer to their latest note, but that the contents of the Constitutional reply would not be made public here out of courtesy to the mediators.

BEGIN ASSAULT ON ZACATECAS.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SALTILLO, June 10.—Constitutionalists under Gen. Panfilo Natera began an assault upon Zacatecas early today and according to reports reaching Gen. Carranza here tonight, the Federalists slowly were being driven back by combined rifle and artillery fire.

It was stated Gen. Natera had learned that the Federal forces under Gen. Medina Barron were about to evacuate Zacatecas, with a large quantity of ammunition, and that the Constitutionalists hurried their assault, hoping to capture the supplies.

Reports indicate that 10,000 men were in the assaulting force and that they previously had cut the remaining railroad communications to the south.

Constitutionalists here declared that to escape from Zacatecas and make their way south the Federal army would have to cut its way through the cavalry brigade under Gen. Domingo Arriola, which had reached the vicinity of Zacatecas from Durango.

retreat for Huerta and his Cabinet in case they determine to quit the capital.

The Constitutional forces in Vera Cruz State, numbering 3000, are said to be disposed so that they might be able to cut not only the railroad between Mexico City and Vera Cruz, but also the line between the capital and Puerto Mexico.

The forces are under command of Gen. Arriola, his chief of staff is Col. Perez Romero, a brother-in-law of the late President Madero.

It has been understood here that the South American mediators are prepared to make an appeal for Huerta's personal safety in the event his government collapses before the conclusion of the Niagara conferences.

Administration officials were not alarmed over threats to cut communication between Mexico City and the Gulf ports, because virtually all Americans who wanted to leave the capital and nearby interior points reached safety some time ago.

Gen. Funston also reported that rumors of a contemplated Federal attack on Vera Cruz persisted to the point where they could not be entirely ignored. War Department officials, however, were not inclined seriously to regard the rumors.

What they say about Milford Valley!

The newly opened lands of the Milford Valley irrigation project are attracting keen investors and the best type of farmers from all sections of the West. The testimonials above are only a few of the scores that can be furnished upon application at our offices. Live, wide-awake ranchers from Imperial Valley, and the best farming districts of Riverside County, Orange County and the prosperous Whittier and Ventura districts, have rushed to Milford Valley to secure generous portions of this wonderful $30 an acre land, under one of the finest gravity irrigation systems ever constructed in the West.

The Milford opportunity will never be repeated—there is no more soil, water and climate of this type at such low prices. There is no more land of this type right at the door of a progressive, rapidly-growing city—right on the main line of a great railroad (Salt Lake Route) with quick and easy access to the highest priced markets in the United States.

Milford Valley will be quickly settled up by one of the most prosperous classes of people in the West. Only comparatively well-to-do men are buying this land. It is sold on a cash basis. The perpetual water right may be paid for over a long term of years if desired. No matter where you are located—no matter how much money you are making or have made—the money-making features of Milford Valley will appeal to you.

Think of $30 an acre land that should command $250 to $300 an acre when under cultivation and in alfalfa—land that has produced as high as 800 bushels of potatoes to the acre—the type of soil that has averaged 700 to 1000 bushels of onions to the acre—that has netted $800 to $1000 an acre in celery—land under a gravity irrigation system that engineers state should not cost more than 25 to 30 cents an acre yearly to maintain.

Experienced ranchers claim that Milford Valley yields bigger and better alfalfa crops than Southern California—$72 an acre net from three cuttings—$19 a ton net, baled—today—a better potato district than Colorado—a better hog country than Iowa—a better dairying section than San Joaquin Valley—wonderful apple country—a mountain climate (elevation 4971 feet) that should add ten years to any man's life—pure, soft, sparkling drinking water. Write or call at once for booklets, folder, testimonials, etc. Special Saturday excursions at low homeseekers' rates. Nine out of every ten who have seen this land have bought from $0 to $20 an acre right on the ground. This is the type of land that sells on sight.

Better Naval Accommodations.

The need of a recreation and playground park for the officers and men of the navy at the harbor was brought to the attention of the Chamber of Commerce directorate yesterday by the Committee on Military and Naval Affairs, with the suggestion that the matter be taken up with the city to have such a park established at the harbor, equipped with baseball grounds, football, tennis courts, running track, cricket grounds, etc. The same committee recommended that better landing facilities be made at the harbor, also that the securing of a 25-cent railroad fare from the city to the harbor for a round trip for the officers and men of the navy in uniform be taken up with the Railroad Commission.

Plant in Good Condition.

"George E. Platt's condition is better; he's reading a newspaper now." This is the bulletin given out concerning the condition of the president of the Los Angeles Creamery Company, shot Saturday by Frank Deyoe, who then killed himself. ## Cigarette Endangers Apartment.

A cigarette thrown carelessly into a pile of waste paper in a vacant lot at Nos. 436-42 South Grand avenue late yesterday afternoon caused a near-panic when flames endangering adjoining frame apartment buildings threatened to sweep the district. ## RICH MEXICANS

LEAVE GUAYMAS.

WILL WAIT THIS SIDE BORDER TILL TROUBLED TIMES AT HOME PASS.

(BY ROBERT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SAN DIEGO, June 10.—Many wealthy Mexican merchants and their families of Guaymas have come here, evidently fearing trouble later in Mexico. The merchants are all neutral and will remain here with their families until assured that things are in a settled state at home.

Among the wealthy Mexicans who came on the British steamer City of Mexico, are U. Haripuri, manager of the Martinez mercantile house at Guaymas, and family; Alberto Cabilas, Jr., correspondent for the firm; Francisco Azcona, manager of the electric light plant, lumber yards and ice plant. All are at the St. James Hotel.

WOMEN ORGANIZE.

More than one hundred society and clubwomen have organized as the San Diego County Woman's Association for the furthering of the interest of women at the exposition to be held in 1915. As the women feel it is a oversight of those in authority not to have arranged for woman's headquarters at the San Diego Exposition, they propose to provide such headquarters at this exposition.

Mrs. Clark McKee is chairman.

Mrs. G. Aubrey Davidson, wife of the president of the Panama-California Exposition, is one of the leaders of the movement.

It Is Not All in the Clothes

You have to do your part—the clothes can't do it all.

You have seen men, no doubt, who would look like a prince even if they had on a $10 suit of clothes.

And you have seen men who looked quite the opposite even when they put on $50 clothes.

We can furnish you the good clothes and perhaps we can help you in the selection of them so that you will get what is becoming to you, but you must do the rest.

You want, of course, real quality clothes to begin with, but you can do more toward "making the clothes" than the clothes can toward making you.

Benjamin clothes will give you the right beginning.

Rheumatic Throat
Is Common Trouble

Should Be Treated in Blood To Prevent Recurrence.

There are successful gargles that stop soreness in the throat, but to prevent their recurrence return to the blood must be put in order. The best remedy is S. S. S., as it influences all the functions of the body to neutralize the irritants of waste products and to stimulate their excretion through the proper channels.

Rheumatic sore throat is a dangerous indication, as it means that the blood is loaded with more uric acid than the kidneys can excrete, and may thus lead to serious general disturbance.

The action of S. S. S. stimulates cellular activity. It prevents the accumulation of uric acid in local spots. It enables the arteries to supply quickly the new red blood to replace worn-out tissue.

For this reason uric acid that finds the throat an easy prey to its breaking-down influence is scattered and eliminated. In other words, S. S. S. prevents chronic conditions by enabling all the mucous linings of the body to secrete healthy mucus. Its influence is shown in a marked improvement of the bronchial tubes, whereby the huskiness of voice with thick, grayish expectorations is overcome. S. S. S. well diluted with water, mucus a blood both since it is welcome to any stomach and at once gets into the blood.

S. S. S. is free of all minerals and contains ingredients wonderfully conducive to well-balanced health.

You can get it at any drug store, but do not accept anything less. There is danger in substitutes. S. S. S. is prepared only by The Swift Specific Co., 528 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Our Medical Dept. will give you free instruction by mail on any subject of blood disorders. Write today.

"COLD-BLOODED BLACKMAILER."

Prosecutor Hands a Nod to Choir Singer.

Robertson on Trial Charged With Extortion.

Grins Broadly as Attorney Pines the Lash.

W. L. A. Robertson, choir singer, charged with extorting $250 from Miss Minnie Brenner, a nurse employed by a wealthy Pittsburgh family, was placed on trial yesterday in Department Seventeen. Robertson was described by Deputy District Attorney Doran in his opening address to the jury as an "impetuous bear-skin suit who charges $100 a week."

Doran characterized the defendant in bitter terms throughout his address. Robertson sat unmoved during the arraignment, and several times a broad smile spread over his face.

Miss Brenner was the first witness called by the prosecution. She is a dark-eyed girl about 32 years of age. She told her story in a convincing manner and attorneys for Robertson were unable to shake her testimony.

She looked straight at Robertson while on the stand and he kept his eyes riveted on her.

She told of meeting Robertson at Venice about a year ago, and of how he proposed to her a few hours afterward. She said she refused him.

She testified that one night, while sitting on Robertson's lap on the front porch of a Venice cottage, something flashed before her eyes and she jumped to her feet.

"I asked the defendant what it was," she said, "and he said he didn't know. I said it was lightning, wasn't it?" and he replied, "We don't have any lightning in California."

"Several days later," she said, "the defendant called on me and said he had something important to tell me. He told me that detectives had taken a flashlight while we were on the porch and that they wanted $1500 to keep quiet. I told him we had done nothing wrong and I couldn't understand why they wanted the money."

He kept at me and I finally gave him $250 in all. He said detectives from the District Attorney's office were on the deal and would prefer criminal charges against us if we didn't pay them."

Miss Brenner said Robertson told her that he had given the detectives several hundred dollars as his share.

"When I got back to Pittsburgh," she said, "I found a telegram from Robertson demanding $250 more hush money. I detested him before, but sending it, but finally mailed him a check for the amount. A few hours after mailing the check I sat down and wrote Dist. Atty. Frederick, asking him if any complaint had been filed against me and why it was that I was forced to pay my hard-earned money to this man Robertson."

She told of receiving an immediate answer from the District Attorney's office stating that no complaint had ever been lodged against her, and that as far as that office knew, no crime had been committed by her.

County Detective McLaren and Graham testified yesterday as to the admissions made by the defendant. According to McLaren, the defendant admitted that he stole $250 from his uncle's trunk to settle with the so-called detectives.

Attorney Clarence Gardner, representing Robertson, indicated through his questions to prospective jurors that Robertson will not take the stand in his own defense.

The case will probably go to the jury today.

PRESS BEFORE ELECTRICIANS.

Its Responsibility Set Forth at Meeting of Two Hundred Members of the Jovian League.

Two hundred members of the Jovian Electrical League listened to an address by Louis G. Guernsey on "The Responsibility of the Press" yesterday at Christopher's cafe.

Mr. Guernsey declared that the functions of the press are more varied than those of any other profession.

"First of all," he said, "our newspapers are the mirrors from which are reflected the actual conditions of every day and season and of every people, State and nation. The public press is also charged with the responsibility of exerting a wholesome editorial influence. It goes into practically every home in the land, is read by every fireside, by people of every age and creed, by people of every trade and profession, by people of every station in life and of every taste."

He declared that it is not always popular for the editor to stand firmly for the right side of great moral questions. "In fact, in many instances," he said, "he does so at the hazard of his business, his prosperity, and even of his life. But as a rule the press stands for the highest ideals of life, for purity in public and private affairs, and for the betterment of mankind."

R. J. McHugh presided. The Jovians will hold their annual picnic the 17th inst.

NATIONAL FLAG DAY.

Mayor Issues a Proclamation Recommending Elaborate Display of the Stars and Stripes.

Mayor Ross issued a proclamation yesterday urging observance of the 137th anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes. He orders flags displayed on all municipal buildings and requests all citizens to display flags at their residences and business places. He also suggests that as the real anniversary comes on Sunday, June 14, the flag be displayed on both days, and calls attention to the business men's parade on Monday in honor of the success of prosperity week.

The United Spanish War Veterans have arranged for a great patriotic meeting on Sunday evening in the First Congregational Church, in which all patriotic societies are urged to participate. A patriotic address will be delivered by Rev. Morris H. Turk.

Honolulu Excursions!

Specialty conducted parties visiting all the points of interest in the islands, now being organized. A party of two hundred will leave for Honolulu and return to Los Angeles on the ship "The Hawaiian," leaving on June 15, 1914.

IT'S "DIXIE DAY" AT THE CARNIVAL.

NINE STATES OF THE "OLD SOUTH" TO FOREGATHER. HAPPY TIMES.

This will be "Dixie Day" at the Carnival of States. To inspiring music by an orchestra of twenty pieces nine States of the "Old South," North and South Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana—will be honored in joint reunion by former residents now living in Southern California. Dr. G. B. Russell of the Alabama society will be master of the day's entertainment. Speeches reminiscent of the old home States will be delivered by Col. B. Fitzgerald of the West Virginia Society and others.

Each society has planned a part of the programme of songs and music. J. Gordon Russell and Prof. and Mrs. A. Dobbins will be among the singers. Miss Edna Eno, soprano soloist, the Hawaiian sextette, and Myers' Orchestra will be heard, afternoon and evening. The festival chorus of 100 voices will be in action in the evening, and then the big platform will feature all the dancing steps of the South.

The spirit of the Blue Ridge and Cumberland Mountains, lapped by a geographical change, by the waters of the Wabash, held sway at the carnival yesterday afternoon when former residents of Kentucky, Tennessee and Indiana held a reunion.

The joint exercises were presided over by W. T. Miller of the Kentucky Society. The programme of music and speaking was good. Mrs. B. Frank Evans rendered the vocal solos "In Dixie Land" and "California" as a Tennessee offering, and was followed by Miss Inez Perdue in "Sunny Tennessee."

Indiana's musical contribution was a quartette in "Down On the Wabash," also two piano solos. Kentucky's selections were rendered by Mrs. Alma Fox, with Miss Alice Hughes as accompanist.

A stirring speech by Mayor House of Nashville was the feature of the afternoon. His earnest declaration that when he finishes his present term of office three years hence he firmly intends to move to California won the applause of the audience.

Mayor House arrived Tuesday on a pleasure trip to the Coast, and immediately waited on by his State Committee to attend the carnival yesterday. He is now entering his third term as Mayor of Nashville, and is one of the Democratic leaders of Tennessee.

Mr. Lightfoot of Los Angeles was the honored speaker for the Kentucky Society. Mr. Fitzgerald spoke for Indiana.

The night entertainment brought out a large crowd. Its special features were four solos by Miss Eno.

SAN FRANCISCO BONIFACE WINS.

Greeters of America Elect Officers at Catalina.

Local Candidate Unable to Overcome Precedent.

Next Meeting to Be Held in Philadelphia.

The closing business session of the Greeters' convention was held yesterday afternoon in Avalon, Santa Catalina Island. The delegates left the city at 3 a. m. in a five-car special train over the Pacific Electric for the harbor, and were taken to the island in the steamship Cabrillo as the guests of the Banning company.

Philadelphia was selected as the next meeting place. George A. Dixon of the Hotel Argonaut, San Francisco, was elected president, defeating James Doherty, local favorite, and two other candidates. These were the other officers elected:

First vice-president, Roy Moulton, Portland, Me.; second vice-president, F. A. Sears, Rochester, Minn.; third vice-president, J. W. Stimpson, New Orleans; fourth vice-president, James Hill, Spokane; fifth vice-president, Elmer Sager, Philadelphia; sixth vice-president, John C. Boushell, Kansas City; secretary-treasurer, R. H. Hawks, Chicago, and sergeant-at-arms, John A. Lewis, St. Louis.

David Olmstead of Chicago was elected chairman of the board of governors. The following are the new members of the board: E. M. Pitts, Detroit; J. L. Mulhern, Galveston, Ill.; William Rick, Des Moines; Louis Kleeberger, Kansas City; Ed Nussbaum, Milwaukee; and A. R. Riggs, Indianapolis.

The organization has a precedent against electing a president from the convention city. Supporters of Mr. Doherty believed that his pleasing personality and wide popularity would overcome the unwritten law, but were disappointed.

Col. William Anderson of Omaha led in the first ballot for president, but lost strength in the second. Mr. Dixon was elected in the third ballot. His campaign manager was F. P. Shanley, manager of the Continental Hotel in San Francisco, and a widely known hotel man.

Upon the arrival at the island, the delegates went direct to the Hotel Metropole for luncheon. There they received a hearty welcome from H. D. Rickett, manager, and George E. Daul, member of the hotel staff.

While the delegates were in the business session in the afternoon, the other members of the party were taken for a ride in the glass bottom boats. The visitors returned to the city at 8 p. m.

The closing banquet was held at the Alexandria, beginning at 8 p. m. Mr. Doherty was chairman and Mr. Olmstead, toastmaster. The speakers included Rev. Baker P. Lee, John S. Mitchell and Walter Raymond.

GIRL STILL MISSING.

Despite the letter stating that she would return yesterday, Madeline Gram, daughter of Mrs. Ada Bram, No. 1249 West Thirty-sixth street, was still missing last night.

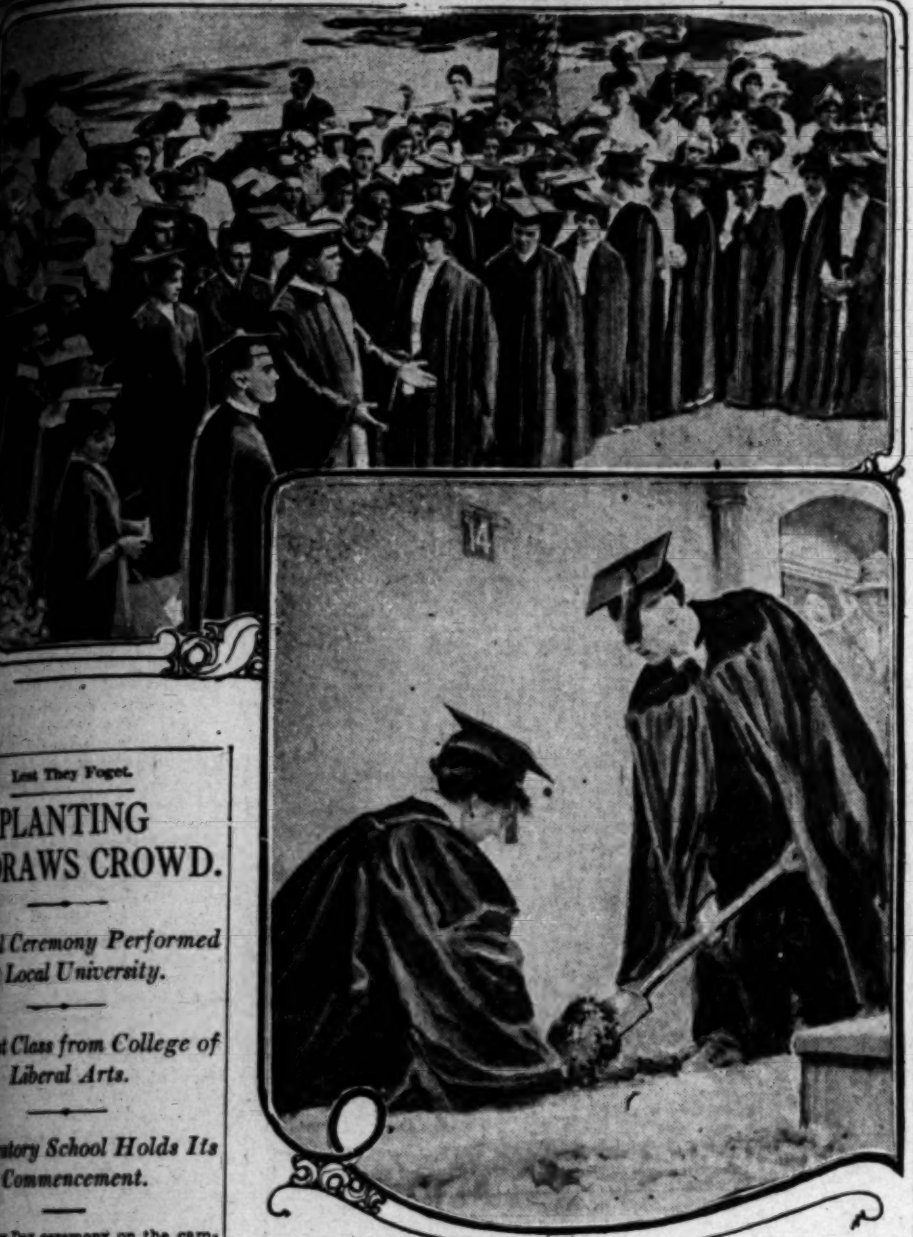

While detectives continued the search for the girl, no definite clues developed yesterday to indicate that she had been stolen from her home, and the Harris agency is still working on the belief that the heiress has left her home on her own initiative.

To strengthen the theory of kidnapping it was learned yesterday that a party in an automobile used a public telephone in Hollywood on the night of the girl's disappearance. In the conversation a man remarked: "We've got the girl and are hurrying out there."

Mrs. Bram stoutly denied yesterday that she had a turbulent scene with her daughter just before she disappeared from her home more than a week ago.

ODD DISAPPEARANCE.
HINTS AT ABDUCTION.

TRACING back to February 1, last, when Mrs. Susie D. L. Brown dropped out of sight, Probation Officers Dunlap and Miss Janeta Holgate have two facts to go on which hint at abduction. One is that Mrs. Brown told of her terror in walking through the Hill-street tunnel on her return from work, and the other, coming through a man posing as an officer, that she had been offered lucrative employment nursing a wealthy woman.

That the young woman did not voluntarily disappear is evidenced by the great love she bore her infant son, Richard. The boy was all she had in the world, and she showered upon him all her spare change, buying him dainty clothing and toys. Having been left destitute when the woman's husband, Clarence Brown, deserted her, the boy was ordered by the court into the custody of Mrs. Filippen, No. 1320 Nadeau street.

At regular intervals Mrs. Brown called to see her son. Then came the day she failed and then many days with no word from her until Mrs. Filippen notified the probation officer. She told of the visit of the pseudo officer. Then Mrs. Brown's sister related how Susie had told her of being stopped by autoists in the Hill-street tunnel and insulted and how she had run all the way to the little home at No. 141 North Hill street.

Mrs. Brown was last employed at the Cahuenga Cafe, Hollywood. Evidently in preparation of taking employment with the supposed sick woman, she had her trunk packed her trunk and sent it to her sister. She also left behind a contract to buy a $350 lot in the Harbor Industrial tract, having paid down $25 on the price.

Brown, the husband, apparently disappeared after the court ordered him to pay $16 a month for the support of the child. He is also being sought by the probation officers.

Complete Reconciliation Between Well-Known Los Angeles Couple. All a Misunderstanding.
The friends of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Byrn. Mrs. Byrn filed suit for divorce against her husband, but with explanations indicating that the whole thing was the result of a misunderstanding—a complete reconciliation has taken place and they will continue to live happily together.

LITTLE ONE IN DANGER.
While trying to evade arrest in his home yesterday W. H. Wade nearly caused serious injury if not death to his four-year-old child. Wade was dodging the police officer and in doing so caused a heavy chandelier to fall from the ceiling, striking the floor but a few inches from the child's head. Patrolman Jackson found Wade hiding behind a dresser when he entered the home at No. 2919 South Main street. When ordered to show himself he dodged through the room, causing the chandelier to fall, and then jumped through a window. He is wanted for failure to provide for his family.

Burglar Gets Bullets.

Rosa had discarded. They were taken to police headquarters and a few minutes later A. T. de Masters, who lives at No. 532 South Flower street, four blocks from where the chase began, identified them as his. His room had been entered by opening a window.
De la Rosa, who about 25 years of age, had a room in a cheap lodging-house at No. 628 San Fernando street. He arrived there about ten days ago. The landlord said he knew nothing of him. A search of his room revealed no stolen goods.
The bullet which brought him down entered his right temple and emerged under the left ear.
Detectives last night found that the back door to the home of Dr. Haughawout was unlocked and there was some evidence of its having been entered. The dentist was absent when the detectives investigated.
Police records show that De la Rosa was arrested October 2, 1910, charged with burglary.

HIT WITH RAKE, SUFFERS RELAPSE.

ASSAILANT OUT ON BAIL WHILE REAL ESTATE DEALER IS ON GRAVE'S BRINK.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
SANTA ANA, June 10.—I. O. Wilson, whose head was raked and battered by Frank Kent in a disagreement over irrigation water at Garden Grove on May 13, is critically ill, with but a slight chance for recovery.
Kent struck Wilson, with a garden rake, peeling off long ribbons of skin from his face, and then used the broken handle as a club.
Wilson had apparently almost recovered when on May 25 he testified against Kent a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder.
Recently he complained of trouble with his head and jaw. Saturday elapsed into a complete loss of mental power. Tonight he is very low.
Wilson is a well-known real estate dealer and agent. Kent, who is awaiting trial in the Superior Court, is out on $500 bail.

FANNING GETS
ANOTHER SMEARBig Explosion Occurs in the Seventh.Biff Schaller Gets About All the Hits.Jerry Downs Has a Bad Day in Fielding.

(BY DEWEY WIRE-REUTERS DISPATCH.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—It couldn't be called Skeeter Fanning's unluckiest star that was working overtime today. He may have had the break working against him on occasions, but today it was an unquestioned fact that the San Francisco twirler was in large part responsible for his own loss, a state of affairs that permitted the Angels to win their second straight, 4 to 1.

Beyond the direct loss of the game, it has brought the two southern clubs in such close proximity to the leaders that a blanket cover them, and a baby blanket at that.

RUBY RIFLE.
Schaller's run was gathered in the fourth. Biff was having popped to the short field. Then came Schaller's single to left and a steal to second. Jerry Downs was out to Maguire in center, but when Fitzgerald hit to second Moore fumbled in his recovery in such fashion that Schaller made the rounds of the bases.

Fanning warded off catastrophe until the seventh. Ernie Johnson knifed a two-bagger into left field and was lucky to be stopped at the keystones. Metcalf hit to the pitcher in an attempt to sacrifice, but Charlie slipped on the grass as he was fielding the ball and both men were safe.

HORRORS!
With Boles at bat, the squeeze was ordered, but fell through miserably. Johnson was caught off third with a strike on the catcher. Ernie started back for the bag and Metcalf kept on running until both men were on the same cushion. Metcalf was grounded to Downs for the first of his two miscues. It scored Johnson and left Metcalf on first, which caused a shift with Zeb Terry as the base runner. Check sacrificed and when Fanning walked Walters and Moore, filling the bases, Leif was a poor relief for Harl Maguire poled a long hit to right that drove in Terry and Walters ahead of him.

The Dilloniels picked up another score in the ninth. Downs had the easiest sort of a chance on Ellis, with a ball straight at him, but he fumbled again. Johnson sacrificed and Metcalf's hard drive past O'Leary into left scored the foot-footed Rube. Brooks was passed and Check hit safely, but the inning was ended when Harry Walters sent the ball to Downs, this time for perfect fielding.

BEAVERS RUN RIOT AROUND THE BASES.
PORTLAND (Or.) June 10.—Portland defeated Oakland today in a free-hitting contest, in which the Oaks used three pitchers and supported home. Score: 11 to 2. Alexander's home run was the only important fracture off Higginbotham. Cook was ordered from the field for raving at Umpire Phyllis. Rodgers added three more to his league base-stealing record. ## TIGERS OR ANGELS CAN TAKE THE LEAD TODAY.

Less Than Game Separated the First Division Teams. San Francisco Could Drop from First to Third Before Sunset—Three Switches Possible—Tigers, Angels and Braves Look Like Contenders.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

OVER in the history of Coast League affairs has there been a situation more acute than this? The Tigers and Angels are separated by less than a game, and the Braves are only a few runs behind. The Tigers are the favorites to win the pennant, but the Angels are the team to watch. The Braves are the team to watch. The Tigers are the favorites to win the pennant, but the Angels are the team to watch. The Braves are the team to watch.

This park is located at the foot of Lone Mountain, a spot famous chiefly for its large and apparently inexhaustible supply of wind. This wind has a fixed habit of sliding in over the right field fence and sweeping across the field in chilly gusts, in which are concealed the germs of "charley horses," lame shins and muscular rheumatism. Several plans for combating the elements have been suggested. One is to erect a forty-foot wall back of the right field fence, and another is to erect a series of windbreaks, and more extensive and more expensive plan, involves turning the place around. That is, tearing down the grandstand and rebuilding it in right field. In that way it could be made to serve the dual purpose of seating the people and acting as a windbreak.

Open to Engagement.

Stewart is back in Los Angeles ready to open negotiations with any club which feels the need of a good pitcher. He found himself temporarily out of a job following the sudden collapse of the California League. In addition to managing the Fresno club, Stewart pitched winning ball in the California circuit. All of the Coast League clubs now up in the race are well supplied with pitchers. Stewart will confer with Wolverton while in the city.

President Maier Coming. Ed R. Maier, president of the Venice club, after looking over the various big-league teams, has decided that they won't do, and is now coming back to his Tigers.

Shinn Back Next Week. Jimmie Shinn will be back in the game for the Wolves again next week, according to Lloyd Jacobs, Harry Wolverton's financial sidekick in the Sacramento club.

Wolverton brought south with him four new men instead of two, as generally suspected. They are Orr, Williams, Brown and Caldwell, the last two youngsters and strangers to the professional baseball in a class AA sense. Orr formerly was with Sacramento, and returns after two years of utility playing for Connie Mack's Athletics, a southpaw, and comes from the Detroit club to complete his pitching education. He is regarded as the goods and will be used this week against the Tigers. Brown is a graduate of St. Ignace College. His first appearance here was marked by misfortune. He muffed a fly ball and unfortunately it came at a critical time. He might not do the same thing again in three years. Therefore do not judge him hastily.

If I remember correctly, Emil Meusel dropped something like three fly balls in the first game that he played here. Two months later he was sold to Washington.

Therefore, fortunate the young man who makes a miff on his first appearance.

MCAREY'S PLAN TO REGULATE CHAMPIONS.

WHEN Kid Williams fights Le Doux for the title in September, Promoter T. J. McCarrey will present the winner with the first of a string of championship belts to be known as the "McCarrey belts."

This belt will be followed by others for each of the boxing divisions. These belts are not to become the property of the winner, but shall be continually fought for and passed along from loser to winner.

A commission will be appointed consisting of one man in Los Angeles, one in San Francisco and one in the East. This commission shall determine the weights at which the various championships shall be defended. The commission shall also fix the dates when the championship is to be defended. If the champion fails to defend his title at the date appointed, the belt is to be forfeited.

If McCarrey carries his plan through successfully, the tyrannical and absurd reign of the champion will be at an end.

Such Is Golf.

CHAMPION LEGG BEATEN BY HIS FORMER VICTIM.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

KANSAS CITY, June 10.—Playing an aggressive game—brilliant at times—W. N. Chambers of Omaha Country Club defeated Harry G. Legg of the Minneapolis Club, Minneapolis, four times-trans-Mississippi golf champion, in the second round of the championship flight of the tournament today. The score was 18 up and 10 down. The score was 18 up and 10 down.

Legg and Chambers played their game on the greens. Both had trouble with their "short game" in the first nine holes. Chambers always playing short and Legg playing over. At the ninth hole, however, Chambers threw away a wooden putter which he had been using and started putting with a cleek. From then on he had the

DEFIANCE FORCED TO QUIT, RESOLUTE BEATS VANITIE.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SANDY HOOK (N. J.) June 10.—Rigging accidents retired the Defiance in her first effort to show her racing abilities today and left to her rival cup class sloops, Resolute and Vanitie, a thirty-mile duell off Sandy Hook. Resolute won by 7m. 29s., corrected time.

The Defiance broke one of her aluminum blocks and pulled a strap on her bowsprit, but her owners expect her to be in condition to race tomorrow.

The Resolute covered the fifteen miles to windward and return in three, 16m., 41s., the fastest time ever made over such an America's Cup course.

The Ragatta Committee announced that the Vanitie allowed the Resolute to start. This was the first time that the allowance has been openly stated.

Resolute captured the weather berth at the line and led from the start. She increased her lead to 4m. 15s. Doyle, and will arrive here Saturday.

Meantime, Otto Schone is rapidly completing arrangements for the big "blowout" soon to take place at the ranch.

The big fight will be welcomed all along the line.

Shinn Back Next Week. Jimmie Shinn will be back in the game for the Wolves again next week, according to Lloyd Jacobs, Harry Wolverton's financial sidekick in the Sacramento club.

before the start did not improve her chances. Her skipper, George M. Frachon, however, made a game effort to race.

Left to continue the contest, Resolute and Vanitie had a great struggle to the outer mark off Long Beach. The Herreshoff boat seemed a trifle tender, but she headed higher and footed a little faster than the Gardner creation.

In the other three complete races which two yachts have sailed, Vanitie has outrun Resolute. Today the Gardner boat could make no gain on her rival down the wind.

The yachts will have a chance tomorrow to race over a thirty-mile triangular course off the Hook. Summary:

Fifth cup class race: Start, 11:15. Course south, southwest, fifteen miles and return. Wind, south-southwest twelve miles, the ebb.

Resolute, start 11:15:27. Finish, 1:32:53.

Vanitie, start 11:17:00. Finish, 1:37:57.

Defiance, start 11:17:00. Withdraw. Resolute elapsed time, 1:16:44; corrected time, 1:15:29.

Vanitie elapsed time, 1:20:57; corrected time, 1:20:57.

Resolute won by 7m. 29s., corrected time.

Elapsed time on legs: Resolute to windward, 1:55:29; to leeward, 1:21:12.

Vanitie to windward, 1:59:11; to leeward, 1:21:46.

DOUBLE-HEADER TRIP FOR KIDS TO VENICE.

YESTERDAY there was a "double-header" joy ride for the children who have been enjoying the day's outing to Venice, which The Times has been providing for them.

There was a morning trip and an afternoon one. The youngsters from the Macy-street school left bright and early yesterday and in the afternoon the smaller children from the Ann-street school were taken on a duplicate trip.

The managers of the different concessions have shown The Times' parties unusual courtesies, and during the morning hours when the different amusements are supposed to be "sleeping," many of them open their doors especially for these little tots who have seldom known the joy of beach life.

Yesterday morning Manager Davis of the sea-elephant concession gave a special performance for the children. How it was enjoyed by the boys and girls, most of whom are of foreign birth! They crowded around the rail while Billie, Snub-nose, Maude and the others were put through their tricks. Dr. A. Delford gave a special lecture for the children regarding the habits and life of the sea elephants while the latter sported in the big tank.

After a happy lunch on the sand the children were brought back to the school and another truckload taken in the afternoon.

Of course the afternoon party did not have the pleasure of lunch on the sand, but they were allowed to see several more concessions.

There were thirty-nine girls and eleven boys from the Macy-street school with Miss Irene Dove in charge in the forenoon party and forty-eight boys from the Ann-street school managed by Miss Elsie Lons in the second joy-ride. Today two more parties will be given the joys of the trip to the beach.

Coach Jack Mackley of Cornell University, because of his wonderful showing in the eastern intercollegiate where his proteges won the meet for the fifth year and added the $1000 challenge cup to the Ithaca University trophies, is considered the probable coach of the United States 1916 Berlin Olympic games squad.

United States of America football association (soccer football) includes twenty-one State and cup organizations. It is the governing body of the game in this country.

JARDIN DE DANSE OPENS.

Blackwood's Rag Palace Too Small for Crowd.

Debut of New Venture Is Decided Success.

Noonday Dances Will Begin This Afternoon.

BY GARDNER BRADFORD.

At last John Blackwood has put one over. For he it known that his "Jardin de Danse" threw open its capacious doors last night, but they were all too narrow to accommodate the crowds that tried to be in on the first rag.

Of course, it was to be expected, for the rag craze and the tango tendency are still at fever heat, and when one presents an ideal opportunity for indulgence in these virtuous vices, there is but one answer.

Even if you don't dance the "Jardin de Danse" is well worth a visit. The old armory has undergone a complete metamorphosis, the dining floor is now as sleek as satin, while from ceiling girders, balcony and the newly-installed pillars and rails that mark the boundary of the dance floor, flowers and bunting dangle, colorful and inviting.

Then, too, there are Ed Foote and his cohorts, who make the sort of music that simply makes one's feet misbehave, while over all hovers the atmosphere of class, most essential element of all in a venture of this kind.

Last night, of course, everybody was there. The "Jardin de Danse" is so convenient, almost at the apex of the triangle made by the junction of Spring street and Broadway, and with Main street only a block away, that one can reach it from almost any point in town.

The girls were out in brigades, all sparkling and decidedly nifty in the latest fashions and fashions, and the host of gallants who lined the ropes were scarcely smaller than those more fortunate, who had had the temerity not to be pikers, and accordingly brought their girls with them.

And one of the delightful features of the place is that one doesn't have to stand up all the time, but one can sit and eat, and there is none of that "grab-the-money" spirit which makes three-minute dances dwindle to ten seconds. Leave it to Blackwood to see that every one has a good time.

I couldn't help but notice what spacious conveniences had been made for the ladies. A boudoir, and a refreshment department, with a countless number of those little Italian tables, and chairs that make for cozy conversation.

To be sure, there is no beer, but that is not Blackwood's fault. But one can get the next best thing, chemically pure, and really they don't taste bad at all.

Special features? No! What was the use? Everybody wanted to dance, especially after Hazel Allen and Melkijohn showed them how it should be done. They are some couples, believe me!

I tried to have a little chat with Blackwood about midnite, but it was no use. He was too busy shaking hands, but he did steal a minute to remind me that his dance is midnite beginning today.

Translated, it means noonday dance, and it sounds pretty good, especially for those who have been tied up all morning in study offices, and have a few minutes in which to get the kinks out of their systems.

I.A.A.F. ADOPTS A FEW MORE RULES.

SIX MEN COUNT IN EVENTS FROM THIS TIME ON. OTHER RESULTS.

THE ATLANTIC CAMEL AND A. J.

LYONS (France) June 10.—All countries represented at the congress of the International Amateur Athletic Federation agreed today to adopt the strictest definition of an amateur and passed unanimously the special committee's report as previously outlined, with certain additional stipulations.

Among these is a provision proposed by America that an amateur can not sign a contract agreeing to take a professional position in athletics or to take part in athletic sports for money at a later date; that an amateur can not promote or have interest in the promotion of any field or track athletic competition, nor shall he allow his name to be used to advertise or recommend the goods of any firm or manufacturer—proposed respectively by Canada and Germany.

It was unanimously decided that the following list of special recommendations for the Olympic games shall be handed to the president of the Olympic congress by James Sullivan, chairman of the Rules Committee.

(1.) Each country shall enter a maximum of twelve for individual events, six to start; in team events, one entry.

(2.) The minimum age of competitors shall be 17 years, subject to exceptions.

(3.) Athletic contests shall be confined exclusively to men.

(4.) An international jury of five shall settle all questions not settled by the rules.

(5.) In all field events six men shall be allowed in the final, and in all track events up to and including the 400 meters, the first two shall be allowed to compete in the next round, and in longer races at least two shall be allowed to compete.

(6.) In scoring in all track and field events the first six shall be counted, the winner scoring seven, second man five, and the others four, three, two and one, respectively.

(7.) The winning nation in each group of sports, athletic, swimming, fencing, etc., shall be awarded a trophy.

BURNT CORK FIRST STAGE OFFENSE OF BILL HODGE.

WILLIAM HODGE, the star of "The Road to Happiness," who comes to the Majestic Theater next Monday night for a week's engagement, is not known to players as a dancer, at least not to the patrons of the theater that make up his nowadays audiences.

But back in the mid '80's, the golden age of blackface minstrelsy, a dance was evolved known as "the burnt-cork," and proficiency in its intricacies was a part of the required equipment of all burnt-cork performers of that time. It was still high in vogue in the minor communities when Hodge drifted into the drama by way of a 10-20-10 repertoire company, that toured in northwestern New York State, and he recalled time and again for his interpolated burnt-cork. It is a step, or series of steps, so old as the hills, and the present-day theatergoer.

Another interesting story of Hodge's early career came to light last week—one that makes known the fact that "The Man From Home," in which he starred for six seasons, was written virtually to order for David Warfield. It appears that Warfield wanted to play a Hoocher, and suggested to Booth Tarkington that he was the man to write the play. Tarkington and Henry Leon Wilson went into retirement, to emerge presently with "The Man From Home," only to learn that Warfield had selected the pathetic but poor "A Grand Army Man" as the vehicle for his departure from the stage and Hebrew types.

Chances sent the play to George C. Tyler for reading, and that manager, always a devout believer in the talents of Hodge, did the rest. The actor, at the time, was in the closing stages of a deal whereby he and Joseph Weber were to combine in a partnership, both professional and business, to be known as Weber and Hodge, the object of which was to perpetuate the Weber & Hodge school of travesty and extravaganza. The deal grew out of Hodge's success as the rural fire laddie in Weber's production of "Dream City."

There is really no time limit. Turn in your subscriptions as fast as you get them, take your trip whenever you finish. The Times camp manager is always at his desk between 3:30 and 6 o'clock p.m., and will be glad to give any information regarding the camp. If you can't come in, write or phone for illustrated circular and subscription blanks. This circular describes the camp in full, gives all the rules for securing the subscriptions and shows some pretty scenes of the boys' good times last summer.

SIX LONG BEACH VETERANS PASS.

LONG BEACH, June 11.—When the first call for gridiron aspirants is made by the Long Beach High School football coach next fall, six of last year's team will be found missing from the ranks. An even half-dozen of last year's players graduate this week.

It will be necessary to develop a new squad of wing men next fall, as four out of the six graduating or leaving school players were from the Long Beach team. Ray Walker, Paul Wilcox and Arthur Ohi, all ends of last season, graduate. While McGee, who entered Long Beach from the Chabot Union High School of Ontario last year, will probably play with Pasadena next fall, as his people have taken up their residence in the Crown City.

Corliss "Wild Bill" Mosley, Long Beach's star full-back of last year, will graduate this week, and has announced his intention of entering Yale, where he should stand a good chance to land a freshman backfield berth.

Long Beach will also lose Perry Downs and "Pencil" Marks, linemen, next year.

At a meeting of the football team at Williams, last year's center, was elected to captain the 1914 eleven. L. Alexander will manage the squad. It has not been determined as to who will coach the Long Beach football team next year.

Coulton Heart-Broken.

He looked as big as me. Big square shoulders, like a middleweight. "But Johnny said he would break him in two. You newspaper men say that Johnny was expecting to be beaten, but that isn't so. He felt perfectly confident. The only thing that made him a little uneasy was the betting. I'll admit that it bothered him some when they made Williams a 2-to-1 favorite.

"But he went into the ring feeling he was a sure winner.

IT WAS MY FAULT.

"I think it was my fault that the fight wasn't better. That Swede looked so big that I wanted to see what he could do. So I told Johnny not to fight him for two or three rounds. I told him just to box with him—to fiddle around until I could get Williams sized up. You see, I never had seen Williams fight.

"I wish now I had sent him right in to fight him in the first round. "It was the long-range fighting that beat Johnny. He didn't turn him both times just as they were going out of a clinch. Johnny was a little coward. He didn't turn him head away like I showed him. Instead of ducking his head down and away he threw it back, leaving the side of his neck open. So Kid Williams copped him with an overhand blow right on that mastoid nerve, and Johnny went clean blind. He couldn't see a thing.

"When he came back to his corner I had to shake him hard before he knew where he was. He couldn't see and his head was buzzing. Aural vertigo, I think, the doctors call it. "I got him in pretty good shape for the third round, but he got it again. He tried to get up when the referee counted him out, but he couldn't get on his feet. He was honestly out.

KNOCKED BILLY.

"When we got him back in the corner he didn't know where he was. He kept shaking his head and laughing. "It made me a little sore to hear him laughing, and I said, 'What's the joke? I don't see anything funny about losing a championship.

"He says to me, 'I ain't laughing at that. I'm just laughing.'

"To tell the truth, he was just knocked out. I saw a man like that once before. It was Peter Maher. He was fighting with Joe Goddard and banging him all over the ring when Joe jams him back in the corner with one hand and slams one with all his might onto the side of Maher's jaw. Peter drops in his tracks. He sits up on his haunches and begins to snicker and laugh. Everybody thought it was a fake, but he was just like Johnny was last night—literally knocked silly.

"When we took him back into the corner Johnny didn't know where he was. He kept asking what had happened.

"Last night we took him back to the camp, and I felt so bad that Johnny came up to me and put his hand on my shoulder and says, 'Don't you worry about it, old man. I'll get into shape and we will get a return match. I can lick that fellow sure.'

BROKE HIS HEART.

"But this morning when the papers came and we read where some of the writers thought that Johnny had quit, that just about broke his heart. He made him feel so bad that I thought I would come up and tell you all about it and tell you that Johnny did the best he could.

"He might not have won the fight anyhow, but he would have given the fans a better entertainment, as I wouldn't have looked as bad if I hadn't told him to stay away and box for three or four rounds.

"I don't know whether Johnny can ever be champion again or not. He might. He's only 25.

"Kid Williams is a good boy; he's as powerful as an ox, but he will never be able to make that weight again.

"If he tries to raise the weight and take it out of the legitimate bantam-weight division, Johnny will claim the title again.

"Williams is a good fighter, but it is ridiculous to say that he is the greatest bantam who ever lived. Terry McGovern could have broken him in two."

RECALLING TRUSTEES.

REDONDO BEACH, June 10.—A great surprise was sprung on the residents of the beach this morning when three separate petitions were circulated recalling City Trustees W. J. Hess, O. N. Tomlinson and E. T. Thompson. The petitions claim that each of these Trustees named have refused to vote for certain measures necessary to promote the health and welfare of the city, that said Trustees are obstructing the progress of the city by their continued refusal to vote for measures which are beneficial and necessary.

WAITING between heaven and earth and daring death with every gust of wind. Jack Tyler, the "hum..." yesterday painted the fall flag poles on the Times building.

A more atom against the blue sky. Young man, who is known to his friends as "Gentleman Jack," went to his work with the keenest enthusiasm, and while hundreds gathered on the sidewalk below, he swung his perilous position as though it were a big arm chair.

"Every fellow to his trade," said Jack, when he had finished his work. "There is never been a time when I haven't made myself a little bit of money for the money, and I get it."

Tyler says that he was a painter in his youth when he first learned that there is a great height difference between a man's head and his feet. He was up on this work as a trained fall or a foot, said Tyler grinning. "I've been up there a lot of times, but I know that I can't stay there unless I get a meter or two."

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Public Works Board has filed with the City Clerk the assessment maps and rolls for the opening of Western avenue into Griffith Park. The total cost of this project is $74,667.80. The time for protest will expire the 20th inst.

The Council decided yesterday to postpone until September 16 further consideration of the Arroyo Seco parkway enterprise.

The Police Commission, after a hearing of electric men and sign-painters yesterday, decided to modify its rule regarding signs on liquor establishments.

A petition has been presented to the Mayor asking him to remove the Park Commission because of its attitude on the Griffith Park Greek Theater subject.

A beach pastor, sued for slander by an Ocean Park matron, makes startling statements in his answer, filed yesterday. He names the mother of the woman as his authority for statements, upon which he based the alleged slanderous remarks.

A divorce suit was taken in Judge Morrison's court yesterday to get the statement of the husband on the testimony of a hotel proprietor that a frame-up was planned to get a divorce decree.

At the City Hall.

GRIFFITH PARK GRAND ENTRANCE.

ASSESSMENT ROLL ON FILE WITH CITY CLERK.

More Than Eleven Thousand Parcels of Land in District to Pay Cost for Opening and Widening of Western Avenue Into City's Greatest Recreation Grounds.

The Board of Public Works has sent to the City Clerk, with its approval, the assessment rolls and maps for the district that is to be called upon to pay the costs of the proposed opening of Western avenue into Griffith Park. This is the purpose of creating a grand entrance to the city's most extensive park. It will give convenient access to the park for a large portion of the city, and when the ultimate plans are carried through will become a landscape feature of note.

The assessment rolls require three volumes and there are more than 11,000 parcels of land included within the district. The total amount to be raised within this district is $74,667.80. Of this there is $73,728.66 for payments on land required, and the expense of the proceedings will amount to $939.14.

The Roman Catholic Bishop of Monterey and Los Angeles is on the list for land to be required, there being two parcels, one of which is for $140 and the other $1485. Mrs. N. J. Pomeroy has two parcels of land in the district.

The prices on these are $4594 and $6135. The land required from William Mead is priced at $54,411.46. The maps and assessment rolls are now available for public inspection at the office of the City Clerk, and the time for protests will expire on June 20.

FOR FUTURE ACTION.

ARROYO SECO PARKWAY. Upon motion of Councilman Roberts, the City Council yesterday laid over until September 16 further consideration of the Arroyo Seco parkway project. It is deemed impracticable to give serious consideration to this subject before the opening of the season, as the first thing to be taken care of is that of providing safety against flood waters.

Councilman Wheeler has advocated a delay until such time as the people have adopted the excess condemnation plan. Through this means the entire lots along the district, where it will be necessary to provide a permanent channel for the Arroyo Seco, could be taken over by the city, instead of condemning only such portions of these lots as are actually required for the channel. Then, after the improvement is made, the city could replant and sell the remaining portions of these properties. This has been done in other cities, with the result that the results have been more than paid the cost of the improvements.

Councilman Betkowski has been the consistent opponent of the plan to acquire the Arroyo Seco Parkway under the assessment district plan. When the Council voted yesterday to postpone further consideration of the project, Betkowski was pleased.

"Ha, ha," chuckled the Councilman, "that's giving it a respectable burial, anyway."

ADJUST BURDEN.

HOOVER-STREET ASSESSMENTS. The united protests of a large number of property owners within the assessment district for the opening and widening of Hoover street, from Vernon avenue to Fifty-second street, succeeded in convincing the City Council yesterday that the plan for assessment should be changed. The protests as to the assessment were sustained, and the City Engineer was instructed to prepare a new assessment in which 10 per cent. of the total cost of the project will be borne by property fronting on Hoover street and one-half back from Vernon to Santa Barbara avenue and from Fifty-second street to Silas avenue, which is in accordance with a previous agreement at public hearings.

The Council denied the protest for that portion of Hoover from Silas to Manchester avenues, and that portion of the general improvement will proceed as rapidly as the legal steps can be taken.

MODIFIES RULE.

ELECTRIC SALOON SIGNS. The Police Commission, as the result of yesterday's hearing with electric sign men and sign painters, decided to modify its rule regarding the display of large electric signs at retail liquor establishments would be considered improper conduct of business.

The electric sign men and the sign painters urged that the proposed rule would seriously curtail the classes of work which they handle and throw men out of employment.

The outcome was that the board modified the rule so as to require that all retail liquor establishments be required to remove all projecting signs advertising the sale of any brand of whisky, beer, wine or liquor, or the name or character of the business.

They are permitted to maintain signs to be of a size not offensive or detracting from the general appearance of the street.

The modified rule is to go into effect on July 1.

ASK MAYOR TO ACT.

A petition was presented to Mayor Rose yesterday asking him to remove the members of the Park Commission because of the injunction suit filed by them to restrain the Greek Theater, recently appointed by the City Council, composed of Col. Griffith, Maj. Jones and W. C. Musket, from proceeding with their duties of taking charge of the erection of a Greek theater and an observatory in Griffith Park.

A mass meeting was held Monday evening in Hoegge Hall, under the auspices of the East Hollywood Improvement Association, at which strong resolutions were adopted, condemning the attitude of the Park Commission. These resolutions asked the Mayor and the City Council to use all possible influence to secure the dismissal of the suit instituted by the Park Commission, and to remove the present members of this commission and appoint in their stead "those who so sincerely desire the improvement of the park that they will not search for a legal technicality by which they may delay an important improvement of the park, but will undertake which if successful will forever debar the people from possession of so noble a gift as that contemplated by Col. Griffith."

Landscaping Architect Cox has presented to the Park Commission a plan for the improvement of the Thirty-ninth-street entrance to Exposition Park. These plans were approved, with instructions that the roadway should be made at least forty-five feet wide. The board also approved a plan for the improvement of Exposition Park in the vicinity of Thirty-ninth and Hoover streets, including the entrance to the infield and a plan for the Menlo-Hoover block, showing locations for the houses for the secretary of the Park Commission and the playground director.

Wants Franchise for Incline. Col. Louis Glinger has presented a written application to the Park Commission for a twenty-one-year franchise for an incline railway in Griffith Park. The subject has been taken under advisement.

Dancing in Parks. The Park Commission, staid and quiet as it is, has "fallen" for dancing. At its last meeting it formally granted permission to D. E. Jones, concessionaire at Eastlake Park, to hold dances in the booths there on three nights a week. This permission is subject to revocation at any time at the pleasure of the board.

City Hall Briefs. The Council at yesterday's session sustained the protests against the proposed widening and improvement of Western avenue from Temple street to Fountain avenue. The property owners deposited a certified check for $2450 to reimburse the city for the expenses on this project already accrued.

The Council yesterday sustained the majority protest against the paving of Arlington avenue from Pico to Washington street, but instructed the City Engineer to prepare the ordinance of intention for the paving of Arlington from Pico to Sixteenth street.

The discussion of the creation of the Madison-Virgil street drainage has been laid over by the Council until next Wednesday. Meanwhile members of the Council will make a personal inspection of the district.

The Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation has reached an agreement with the City Electrician where it will place seventy-nine additional arc lights on circuits where it is now furnishing street lighting. The Board of Public Works yesterday approved the plan and the locations suggested.

The Council has postponed until this morning at 9:30 o'clock its final consideration of gas rates.

The Council by unanimous vote yesterday approved the plan of Chief Engineer Mulholland for financing the building of trunk lines for aqueduct water in the San Fernando Valley.

PASTOR PUTS IT UP TO MOTHER.

MINISTER SUED FOR SLANDER COMES BACK HARD.

Beach Shepherd Answers That His Supplication for Souls of Girls Supposed to Be Destined for Life of Shame Was Prompted by Inside Family Information.

The evening of November 20, 1913, was fateful for Rev. Carroll S. Madrox, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ocean Park, for on that night he was told a tale which, through the action he took, has dragged him into court to defend the $25,000 slander suit of Mrs. Dorothy A. Johnson McCartney of Ocean Park. This tale is set out in his answer to Mrs. McCartney's suit, filed yesterday by Attorney S. W. Odell.

The slander suit is based on the alleged statement of the pastor that Mrs. McCartney was attempting to sell her daughter, Estelle, and to persuade Lina Terault, 15 years, into an immoral life.

This statement in its specific intent is denied by the pastor. No names were mentioned at the meeting referred to, he alleges, and he says, the words Mrs. McCartney quotes were not used.

The girl, the pastor says Mrs. Lacy stated, were to be sent to San Francisco for the 1915 Exposition for immoral purposes. The price on Lina was stated to be $600. Believing these statements and others related, the pastor states that he took part in the meeting, Estelle being a member of his church, and Lina a Sunday-school teacher, without harm or ill-will, being only desirous of doing good to the girls.

BYRNES IDENTIFIED BY ALLEGED VICTIM.

G. P. Fries positively identified J. W. Byrnes yesterday as the man who received his bets in the alleged phony poolroom at Venice, last February. He was not so successful under the cross-examination of Attorney Earl Rogers in remembering the names of the horses upon which his bets were placed, except Rose Queen.

Mr. Rogers produced the official gazetteer of racing records and offered to prove that a horse named Rose Queen won a race February 7, which race was intended to show that the race was actually reported at the Venice poolroom.

Judge Finlayson stated that such a record would not be accepted as proof whereupon Mr. Rogers declared that the Supreme Court had held that these records should be considered as authentic. In support of this he cited the authorities today.

Mr. Fries, an Illinois farmer, declared that he was bound by J. W. Byrnes, Lee Rial, now serving time at San Quentin, and a mysterious man named Reed. It was his first venture into the gambling world, and his intention he could not recall where the races were run.

Under the guidance of Rial he made a big killing, giving a check drawn on an Illinois bank, where he admitted he did not have sufficient funds on deposit to cover it. The check was returned by the bank as a certificate of deposit, payment upon which was stopped.

Mr. Rogers wanted to show that the $500 certificate of deposit was based upon a check for $5000 drawn upon a bank where Mr. Fries had no funds to liquidate it. Judge Finlayson decided that the check was material. Mr. Fries subsequently stopped payment on the certificate of deposit. The fact that it passed into Byrnes' hands, Deputy District Attorney Keyes will show, constituted grand larceny, provided it is proved that the poolroom was phony. The defense will endeavor to prove that it was a case of mistaken identity.

FRAMED UP?

DIVORCE SUIT EXPOSE. I. Hepp, former proprietor of the Roberta Hotel, No. 818 South Spring street, threw a bombshell into the divorce suit of Mrs. M. Shrinier when he called for trial in Judge Morrison's court yesterday. Mrs. Shrinier alleged misconduct on the part of her husband at the Roberta Hotel.

Hepp was asked if he had registered Shrinier and an alleged woman as man and wife. He replied "No," but that the lady did. He also stated that Shrinier, who had registered under the name of Albert, told him it was a frame-up; that it was merely for the purpose of getting a divorce. He also stated that the woman did not occupy Albert's room.

Judge Morrison halted the trial and issued a subpoena for Shrinier, intending to resume the case after a week. But Shrinier apparently could not be found, and the case was continued until Tuesday.

Mrs. Shrinier indignantly denied a frame-up. She stated that while talking with a friend March 24, last, she observed her husband crossing the street with another woman.

"That's my husband," she exclaimed; "let's see where they go." She says they followed them to the Roberta, where they entered and later recognized Mrs. Shrinier's writing on the register.

Judge Morrison will make a thorough investigation into whether or not there was a frame-up. For this reason the testimony of Mr. Shrinier is important.

DRIES HER TEARS AND ASKS HEART BALM.

Marcus L. Hawley, a grocer, called on his fiancée May 30, last, fondly kissed her good-bye and stated he was going away on a business trip. Miss Amelia Dostal, his betrothed, clung lovingly to him, returned the kiss and reluctantly released him. She was thinking probably of the happy day when they would be no more.

She experienced no premonition of evil. In short her heart was full of joy, for less than a month previously they had pledged their troth. In a short two hours Mr. Hawley stood hand in hand with Julia Vine Simons, not used.

Then the heavens fell for Miss Dostal. She wept and sobbed, but, drying her tears, consulted Attorney A. W. Green and yesterday a breach-of-promise suit was filed against Mr. Hawley. The suit was for $5000. Dostal's broken heart fixed at $5000. Mr. Hawley's version of the affair, of course, is to be heard.

NARROW ESCAPE.

TOT NEARLY TUMBLES.

Balliff Jack Berdie, thinking of "them" as "them," straightened up in his chair and gasped. A dozen feet away Ethel Hohn, 4 years old, was scrambling through the open window in Judge Morrison's court on the eighth floor of the Hall of Records. Her feet were wiggling in air.

Another moment and Ethel would have been hurtling through the air. Mr. Berdie could not reach her, but his voice could and did summon assistance. A spectator grasped the girl and dragged her back to safety. Then

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS. HAS TO DO IT: To Frank Rivet Judge Monroe seemed to draw a too fine distinction when he expected him to support his invalid wife, and cut out the drink. "I admit I was drinking," said Rivet, "but I was out of work, and I don't think I should be held responsible." The court thought otherwise, and Rivet was held to answer in $2000 bonds, which he was not able to furnish.

SUIT CONTINUED. The suit of George W. Abbey and other stockholders of the Los Angeles Investment Company against the old and new board of directors, asking for the cancellation of 1,327,000 shares of stock and for an injunction to restrain the sale, set for next Wednesday, was partially heard by Judge Works yesterday and continued until Saturday. The continuance was at the request of attorney Thomas Ball, representing the plaintiffs, who desires to take certain affidavits.

SCHOOL ALLOWANCE. Mrs. Jack Curtin asked the Probate Court yesterday to make an allowance of $650 a year for her son, Richard, now 16 years old, to be expended for his schooling. Judge Rives directed Attorney Jones to file a petition for a special allowance. Mrs. Curtin was formerly the wife of E. W. Nettleton, an oilman. The boy was left a legacy of $10,000 a year, and receives an income of $250 a year from life insurance. Mr. Curtin is an attorney.

NOT PARTNERS AT ALL.

McKelvey and Stevens, Accused of Blackmail, Spring a New One on Flabbergasted Federal Prosecutors. The high spot in yesterday's proceedings in the United States District Court in the hearing of the charges of blackmail against attorneys Charles S. McKelvey and W. H. Stevens was the evidence of the defendant, McKelvey. He denied categorically that he had ever been a partner of Stevens, but said that he had drawn complaints against W. H. Evans and Kyle MacBratney, involving Misses Brown-Levy, Evelyn Quick and Cleo Helen Barker, as the personal request of Stevens. He admitted that his name appeared as an attorney of record in the cases that were filed in the Superior Court, but said that was merely a matter of usage and meant nothing. McKelvey also admitted that he had called on S. M. Haskins in relation to the case against a Long Beach millionaire, but said that he went there more as a messenger boy for Stevens than anything else.

Stevens, the co-defendant, testified that he had never been a partner of McKelvey in the practice of the law and said that, when he discovered the circumstances surrounding the bringing of the suits against MacBratney and Evans, he would have nothing to do with them. The witness asserted that McKelvey had entered a general denial of the charges against him, saying that he had never demanded a cent of money from Evans, and that he had never talked to Kyle MacBratney in his life.

The case will go to the jury today, it is believed.
